

CYO Technical Foul Reporting Policy

ALL TECHNICAL FOULS MUST BE REPORTED BY THE OFFICIAL IN WRITING VIA EMAIL OR FAX UTILIZING THE OFFICIAL GAME REPORT FORM.

Coaches and Players

Officials will report all technical fouls issued to coaches and/or players to the CYO Office, in writing, within 24 hours. Coaches or players receiving 3 technical fouls during the season will be suspended for one game (that game being the one following the 3rd issued technical). Additional technical fouls (after 3) will result in additional game suspensions as well as review by the CYO Discipline Committee.

Spectators

If a spectator violates the CYO No Tolerance Policy during a game, the Official will bring the offense to the attention of the Coach. It is then the Coach's responsibility to remind the offender that they must comply with the CYO No Tolerance Policy. This will be the only warning issued. If the offender persists in his/her behavior, a "team technical" will be issued. A second offense will result in a subsequent "team technical" and the removal of the spectator. In the event the spectator refuses to leave, the Official will suspend the game. The CYO Discipline Committee will review all game suspensions. Three team technical fouls will also result in immediate review by the Discipline Committee.

After the game Confrontations

Officials will report, in writing within 24 hours to the CYO Office, any "after game/handshake/parking lot" confrontations involving Officials, Coaches, Players or Spectators. The Discipline Committee will review these reports. Non-compliance (in reporting or providing information) can result in game suspensions for both Officials and Coaches.

CYO No Tolerance Policy

The Official will read the CYO No Tolerance Policy prior to every game. In the event that an official does not read the Policy, Coaches are required to request the reading and if the Official refuses, coaches must report to the CYO office, within 24 hours. Non-compliance by an Official will result in schedule sanctions. The official CYO No Tolerance Policy is the only version to be read at CYO Games.
